The Paris Postoffice.

The Senate last week confirmed the appointment of Eld. J. S. Sweeney as Postmaster for this city. Mr. Sweeney will probably enter upon the duties of his office during the present week.

Mr. J. L. Earlywine will be the deputy postmaster, and Mr. Orville Wilmoth will probably be retained in the office.

Got Off Easy.

John Gibson, the brutal murderer of his stepdaughter, was tried at Catlettsburg last week and was given a life sentence in the penitentiary. The verdict was a surprise, for if there was ever a case deserving of the death sentence it was this one. There were threats of lynching, and the prompt action of the Sheriff in taking his prisoner to Frankfort the next morning after the verdict was rendered undoubtedly saved the brute from meeting with his just deserts. Gibson's attorneys asked for a new trial, and after that was denied by the Court, they decided not to appeal.

TWO SERIOUS FIRES.

G. S. Varden & Co.'s Drug Store, Mrs. Stone's Apartments and Mrs. Watson's Millinery Store.

About 2 o'clock on Friday morning last, Edgar Hill, barkeeper at the Hotel Fordham, who had just closed up and was preparing to retire, had his attention attracted by the peeling sections of his dog, who was whining and scratching at the door of the dining room of the hotel. Mr. Hill investigated and when he opened the door found the dining room full of smoke. He was unable to find the location of the fire, and on opening the front door the dog sprang out and began scratching at the door of Varden's drug store, which is next door to the hotel. Mr. Hill found it to be hot, and noticed a glow on the inside. He immediately turned in a fire alarm. On the arrival of the department a forcible entrance was made, and it was found that the entire rear of the store was in flames, which had burned a hole through the floor, and was rapidly gaining headway in the cellar. The fire department made short work of extinguishing it, but not, however, until the entire stock of Mr. Varden had been practically ruined. During the fire there was considerable excitement among the guests of the Fordham, until Landlord Connors assured them there was no danger. Father Connors, himself, was in bed asleep when a servant notified him the house was afire. Dan only heard the word fire, and in his sleep said: "All right; two dollars a day, second floor front and no extra charge for fire." However, when he had become awakened, and made to realize the danger, it is said he first tried to jump out of the window, but judging the ground too hard to light on, he made a quick run down the steps, and appeared in the office clad only in an undershirt and a rosy skin. Mr. Varden's loss is only partially covered by insurance.

About an hour after this fire, while Mr. Varden was looking over the remains of his stock, he heard screams from a woman of, "For God's sake, somebody save me." He rushed to the door and across the street, and found a serious fire raging in the living apartments of Mrs. Stone, who resides over Mrs. Cornie Watson's millinery store. The alarm was again sounded, and in a short time this fire was extinguished, but owing to the fact that the chemical engine had been used on the previous fire, and there had not been time to re-charge it, the boys were compelled to turn the water on it and considerable damage was done by this to the millinery stock of Mrs. Watson underneath. When the fire was first discovered, Mrs. Stone and her infant child were removed from the building and taken to the Fordham Hotel. The oldest child of Mrs. Stone was forgotten in the excitement, and had it not been for the timely discovery of it by Edward Hite and Wm. Neal, it would in all probability have been suffocated by the intense smoke.

Too much praise cannot be given to the fire department for the excellent work on these two fires.

Choice Music For Sale.

On Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week, Mrs. Ida Gutzert will offer for sale at the Western Union Telegraph Company, the full assortment of choice music left by her late husband, A. M. Gutzert at ten cents per copy. This will be a rare chance for music lovers to secure valuable music at a very small price.

For County Clerk.

Mr. Eld. D. Patton announces in this issue of the News as a candidate for reelection to the office of County Clerk. Mr. Patton, ably assisted by Mr. Pearce as deputy clerk, has filled the office acceptably to every one. There is hardly any doubt but that he will receive a unanimous Democratic vote at the coming primary, as it is not thought he will have any opposition.

PLACE your order for cut flowers and floral designs with C. T. Kenney at Frank & Co.'s.

Caught In The Act.

The local insurance agents established certain rates among themselves and each put up a $25 forfeit in case of taking risks at a smaller figure. T. Porter Smith was caught selling insurance at a rate greatly under that established by the agents and his $25 was promptly pulled in. The agents gave the money to the public library fund. Porter's loss is the people's gain, and a low rate of insurance is greatly to be desired.—Gazette.

In Judge Webb's Court.

Last week Officer Elgin arrested two negro girls, Carrie Keiths and Della Thompson, aged 14 and 15, and Alice Thompson, the mother of the latter, on the charge of house-breaking. Clothing and household goods belonging to a number of Paris people were found in their possession, and the two girls confessed and said they were taught to do the stealing by the older woman, Judge Webb held the two girls over to Circuit Court in the sum of $300, and set the trial of Alice Thompson for this morning.

Vulgarity Is Not Wit.

The billions editor of the Gazette takes exception to a little item in last week's News telling about a stingy man in Millersburg, and calls it an insult to the people of that little city. About the greatest insult that could be offered to a Millersburgian, or anyone else, would be to ask him to take into his home and feed and give to his wife and daughter to read a copy of recent issues of the Gazette containing articles which for rank vulgarity excelled anything ever seen in the Police Gazette. They not only lacked humor, but in some communities the writer and publisher of them would have been proscribed.

We do not care to enter into any argument with the editor of the Gazette as to the merits of THE NEWS and its editors, and thereby advertise his paper, and we will in the future ignore any of his articles concerning this paper.

Fine Bourbon Farm FOR SALE.

I will offer at public sale on the premises, on Tuesday, February 12th, 1901,

my farm containing 325 acres, situated in Bourbon County, Ky., near Elizabeth station, on the Kentucky Midland Railroad, six miles from Paris, 14 miles from Lexington, one-half mile from depot, stores, blacksmith shops and post-office. School and churches near.

The land is fine for grass and for cultivation. There is on the farm 75 acres of growing wheat, 15 acres rye, 70 acres stubble land, 25 acres orchard, and over 100 acres of grass land which would raise tobacco.

All kinds of fruit in orchard, but mostly peaches, which show a fine prospect for a crop this season.

The farm is well watered. A splendid cistern at kitchen door, four wells, three never-failing, and one has been full of water since it was made five years ago, but has never had a pump in it. Also pools, springs and ponds.

The house is a good one, very convenient—I made it to live in. Six rooms, kitchen, store-rooms, pantry, closets and presses, and has just been repaired and nicely painted.

A fine flower pit, extra good meat-house, servants' house, stable, corn-crib, granary, work-shop, ice-house, carriage houses, hen-houses—in fact, more out-buildings than generally found on a first-class farm.

There is a good turnpike along the front of farm.

Possession can be given March 1st, 1901.

Terms.—One-third cash, one-third in one year, one-third in two years—last two payments to bear 6 per cent. interest.

Persons desiring to see the place will call on either the undersigned.
